

Eric Grimaldi, head of coach of SA Schools Action Cricket Team (and a past Springbok himself), visited Uplands Preparatory School recently. He came to speak to the children about the growing popularity of the sport with both boys and girls. He also came to congratulate three talented young cricketers, Ozayr Karodia, Andreas Kuhn and Bevan Carlse, who made the Mpumalanga under 11 Action Cricket side. These three enthusiastic Uplands pupils play Action Cricket each week and have many wins under their belt. Grimaldi also emphasised how the skills used in this format of the game also apply to outdoor cricket.
